Reasons to Travel on a Coach Tour

10. Leave the driving to us

It may be Greyhound's tag line, but it certainly applies to travelling on a motor coach tour. Forget about the hassles of traffic, reading maps, foreign road signs, parking and back seat drivers. You are going to enjoy your trip a lot more if you are free of distractions and responsibilities.

9. Enjoy the view

Sitting in a car often means your sight lines are blocked by other vehicles. Enjoy the panoramic view while sitting in comfortable elevated seats of a modern motor coach.

8. A greater variety of itineraries

A motor coach tour can be designed to just about any specification. They are not limited to visiting places along the river (as would be the case for river cruises) or along the coast (like ocean cruises). They can also be scheduled to depart at the ideal time for the destination, while river cruise itineraries tend to operate continually for months, with some departures travelling at less than ideal times.

7. Socialize and make friends

Enjoy the company of your fellow travellers. You can meet some interesting people on a motor coach tour and it's easy to start up a conversation as they are seeking adventure just like you. Who knows – you may just start a lasting friendship. It is also comforting travelling with a group of people, as there is safety in numbers.

6. No stress, hassle-free travel

Have you ever seen lost tourists in the centre of a city with a map in one hand, a travel book in another, asking themselves where they are? On a coach tour, you can forget about everything and leave the details to us. Don't worry about your suitcase, we'll make sure it gets to your room. Wondering what attractions to visit, what times they are open and where you should eat tonight, when you travel on a group tour you don't have to. In fact, with prepaid tickets and/or reserved entrance times, in many cases groups will be ushered to the front of the line at the most popular attractions.

5. Local guides to share their knowledge

Expertly guided tours bring you closer to the art, architecture, history and people in each city. You not only see the sights, you learn about them, making your tour a stimulating and enriching experience.

“ We will forever remember the colours and sounds of India as well as the friendliness of the people.

Hans P, West Montrose ON

4. Tour Director

Not only do you enjoy the benefits of local guides during city tours, but your professional tour director will also provide information about each country's history and points of interest as you travel between cities. They are also great at directing you towards the nearest bathroom or ATM and telling you where it is safe to walk at night.

3. Help whenever you need it

Unexpected things can and do happen while travelling. Lost passport? Road closure? Mixed up hotel reservation? When you are on a group tour, you might not even realize there was a problem. If you are on your own in a foreign country, you have to manage the situation by yourself. Not so appealing! If you are on a coach tour, while it is a good idea to learn at least a few basic words of the local language, you certainly don't need to be fluent enough to carry on a conversation.

“Wonderful trip, great country and wonderful people. It was beyond our expectations.

Harriet D, Port Stanley ON

“Another great Rostad tour. I am enlightening my friends to your way of travel.

Catherine C, Richmond BC

2. Great value

Travelling as a group typically means lower airfares, hotel prices, meals and even entrance fees into museums and tourist attractions. You are also splitting the cost of guides and transportation between everyone in the group, saving even more money.

1. Rostad Tours is the clear choice

Our tours are more all-inclusive than those offered by other companies, saving you hundreds, if not thousands of dollars in “optional extras”. We also send Tour Hosts along to help through airports, provide assistance during the tour, and look after all the tipping on your behalf. Finally, our years of experience allows us to create comprehensive and personalized tour documents that give you all the information you need to get the most out of your trip.
